

PEACEWAYS

THE NEWSLETTER OF THE CENTRAL KENTUCKY COUNCIL FOR PEACE AND JUSTICE • WWW.PEACEANDJUSTICEKY.ORG

When Separate is Not Equal: Yesterday and Today

CKCPJ's 2012 Voices for Peace and Justice acknowledges and celebrates the voices of individuals who have spoken and acted for justice and civil rights for all citizens. We invite you to join us in an examination of what segregation meant yesterday and how we still need to be working out the meaning of full equality for all. A number of our activities focus on Lexington, but lessons from the struggle for integration and full equality apply far beyond any single city. Questions? peaceandjusticeky@gmail.com or 859.488.1448.

Sat, Oct. 6, from 1 to 4 pm:

Examining Segregated Library Services. Join us at the Lexington Public Central Library, 140 E. Main St. in Conference Room B on the 4th floor. Because no Kentucky city devised a formula for dividing tax dollars between the separate libraries, services varied from one city to another.

Featured speaker Reinette Jones is the University of Kentucky Oral History Librarian and co-creator of the Kentucky Notable African American database (www.uky.edu/Libraries/NKAA). Her 2002 book titled Library Services to African Americans: from the Reconstruction Era to the 1960s documents the history of segregation in public libraries. Time for Q & A will follow the presentation, and a limited number of Ms. Jones's books will be available for purchase.

Wed, Oct. 10, from 10 am to 1 pm; and Sat. Oct. 13, from 1-4 pm:

"A View From the Bus—Tours of Historic Lexington" by Ms. Yvonne Giles, founder and director of the Isaac Scott Hathaway Museum Gallery. Special

"Separate was not equal; it just wasn't. No matter what kind of face you put on it or how many frills you attached to it, separate was not equal."

—Barbara Jordan (1936-1996)

thanks to LFUCG's Social Service Commission for supporting this activity. Seats are limited and reservations required. Please call Howard Myers at 859.312.1932 or send an email with "Bus Tour Reservation" in the subject line to peaceandjusticeky@gmail.com. Donations are gratefully accepted based on participants' ability to pay, $1-$25.

Wed, Oct. 17, from 2-4:

at the Lyric Theater (300 E. Third St, Lexington). Kentucky Commission on Human Rights' 2012 Civil Rights Hall of Fame induction ceremony. CKCPJ co-hosts this event with Ms. Yvonne Giles. To date, 84 individuals have been inducted; this is the first time the ceremony has been held in Lexington. Civil Rights Inductees from across the commonwealth will be on hand to accept honors. Invited speakers include Mayor Jim Gray, David A. Brennen, Dean of the University of Kentucky Law School, and Lexington Human Rights Commission Director Ray Sexton. Celebration includes musical performances by area students and more! Look for additional details closer to the event. This event is free and the public is warmly welcome. Planning on attending with a large school group? Let us know! For reservations and other questions: email peaceandjusticeky@gmail.com or call 859.488.1448.

Sat, Oct. 20th, from 3:00 to 4:30 pm:

Lexington Public Central Library, Rm A, lower level: A Family Project: Heroes and Heroines of Civil Rights. Sonja Brooks, Education Program Director of Sisohpromatem Art Foundation, Inc., encourages the artist in everyone who attends her hands-on workshops. Moms, dads, aunts, uncles, grandmothers, grandfathers, cousins, brothers and sisters are invited to create their mixed-media stamp collage honoring the Civil Rights Hall of Fame inductees. She says the activity you do "will be your own work of art and a lesson in history!" Co-sponsored by Sisohpromatem Art Foundation, Inc. Free and open to the public.

PEACEWAYS

Board of Directors: Joan Braune, April Browning, Rebecca DiLoreto (co-chair), Corey Dunn, Mary Ann Ghosal (secretary), Teresa Hendricks, Randolph Hollingsworth, Billie Mallory, Richard Mitchell, Bruce Mundy (co-chair), Howard Myers (treasurer), Kerby Neill, Steven Pavey, Pedro Santiago, Rabbi Uri Smith, Tanya Torp, Janet Tucker. Staff: Gayle Bourne (database manager), Peaceways: Gail M. Koehler (editor), Sarabeth Brownrobie (layout), Betsy Neale (copy editor). The views expressed in this Peaceways newsletter are those of the authors and do not necessarily reflect the views of the Central Kentucky Council for Peace and Justice.

Peaceways is published ten times a year by the Central Kentucky Council for Peace and Justice, 110 N. Upper St., Lexington KY 40507. Deadline for calendar items for our November/December issue is October 15th. Contact: 859.488.1448 or send an email to peaceandjusticeky@gmail.com.

Member Organizations: ACLU—Central Kentucky Chapter, Amnesty International UK Chapter, Bahá'is of Lexington, Berea Friends Meeting, Bluegrass Domestic Violence Program, Catholic Action Center, Central Christian Church, Commission for Peace and Justice—Lexington Catholic Diocese, Gay and Lesbian Services Organization (GLSO), Humanist Forum of Central Kentucky, Humanitarium, Hunter Presbyterian Church, Islamic Society of Central Kentucky, Jewish Federation of the Bluegrass, Kentucky Coalition to Abolish the Death Penalty—Central Kentucky Chapter, Kentucky Coalition for Immigrant and Refugee Rights (KCIRR), Kentucky Conference for Community and Justice (KCCJ), Kentucky Resources Council, Lexington Fair Housing Council, Lexington Fairness, Lexington Friends Meeting, Lexington Hispanic Association (Asociacion de Hispanos Unidos), Lexington Labor Council—Jobs With Justice Committee, Lexington Living Wage Campaign, Maxwell St. Presbyterian Church, Newman Center at UK, North East Lexington Initiative, One World Film Festival, Students for Peace and Earth Justice (Bluegrass Community and Technical College), Progress—student group at Transylvania University, Second Presbyterian Church, Shambhala Center, Sustainable Communities Network, Unitarian Universalist Church of Lexington, United Nations Association—Blue Grass Chapter

photo by Adriana S. Puckett, Bluegrass Center

Drumming for Peace

Thanks to Rebecca Glasscock, faculty sponsor of BCTC's Students for Peace and Earth Justice, on Sept. 22, at the Peace Meal Garden at the Leestown campus of Bluegrass Community and Technical College, a gathering of peace-loving folk celebrated the International Day of Peace. There were drums and percussion instruments for all, as Tripp Bratton, Jerry Moody, Farhad Rezaei, Patricia Howard, and Joan Brannon and Sisters of the Sacred Drums, led those gathered in drumming, dance, and song.

Bluegrass Literacy's Annual Fall Writing Contest 2012

Entry Deadline Postmark: November 3, 2012

Bluegrass Literacy and the Central Kentucky Council for Peace Justice (CKCPJ) invite you to submit 1200 words in any form (short story, creative non-fiction-essay, poetry) on any topic or theme. Include author bio, title page, title in right hand corner of each work page. Number work pages, please.

The 1st place winner will receive a $100 honorarium award, publication on Bluegrass Literacy's website, and will read their work on Sun, Nov. 11, 2012 at Contest Awards Event for community at Main St. Pubic Library location in Lexington, Kentucky.

Submission details on Bluegrass Literacy's Website:

<http://www.bluegrassliteracy.org>

SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

BY EMAIL to spencer@qx.net

BY MAIL:

$5 Entry Fee with contact FYI (name, email, phone, mail address) to:

BLUEGRASS WRITING CONTEST 2012

Bluegrass Literacy 732 Faulkner Ave, Lexington, KY 40505

Bluegrass Literacy and the Central Kentucky Council for Peace Justice (CKCPJ) congratulate all the finalists in last year's writing contest: Christel Broady, Bobbie Smith Bryant, Katie Bush, Donald Gabbard, Kelly Gunning, Gaye Holman. The winner, Susan E. Lindsey, was recognized and shared her winning work at an event October 2011. Her entry, titled "Demolition Day" was inspired by a personal experience. You can read it at Bluegrass Literacy's website: <http://www.bluegrassliteracy.org/>.

PARTICIPATE

Write a Letter to the Editor!

Do you ever read an article in the newspaper and wish you could speak the truth to what the article is saying? Well...why not do just that! The letters to the editor page is the second-most widely read page of a newspaper after the front page. It is a great way to get your message across to readers, especially in a publication known for coming down on the other side of your issue of interest.

CKCPJ joins the Nuclear Age Peace Foundation (NAPF) in encouraging everyone to write letters to the editor on issues they care about — both local papers and national ones. Writing only takes a few minutes, and you can increase your chances of publication by following a few basic tips. These tips are also available at: <http://bit.ly/TipsLtrEditor>

1. Keep it short and to the point (under 200 words is best)
2. Refer to a specific article printed in that newspaper — cite the title of the article and the date of publication
3. Back up your assertions with quotes or facts
4. Don't be discouraged if your letter isn't published — keep submitting new letters every time you feel something needs a response.

Remember, the Letters to the Editor page is one of the most widely read parts of every newspaper. People want to hear your opinion — take the time to give it to them!

“Our only hope today lies in our ability to recapture the revolutionary spirit and go out into a sometimes hostile world declaring eternal hostility to poverty, racism, and militarism.”

MLK Jr. April 4, 1967

The Face of Homelessness of Lexington Video Contest

Oct. 15 deadline. Contest is open to all high school and college students in Lexington and the surrounding counties. Submit a 2-3 minute video entry showing “The Face of Homelessness.” Complete rules and entry form can be found at www.thefaceofhomelessness.info. Judges’ winners will be announced on Oct. 28 at the kick-off event (see listing page 5). Videos will also be subject to online public voting. Organizers say: “Prizes include cash and gift cards!”

Peace Essay Contest: How Can We Obey the Law Against War?

Essays must be received by: Nov. 1

Most people understand that war is destructive, but few know that it is illegal. On August 27, 1928, many countries signed a treaty called the Kellogg-Briand Pact which outlawed war. After ratification by the U.S. Senate the following year this Pact became the supreme law of the land in the United States and sixty-five other countries. How can we respect the law if most of us are ignorant of its existence? Members of the Peace Community have decided to educate the population on why this law was passed and encourage insight and creative expression on how we can bring our country into compliance.

Peace Essay Rules: Anyone can enter the Peace Essay Contest. In 800 words or less, answer the question: “How Can We Obey the Law against War?” Send your Peace Essay to: Peace Desk, 213 S. Wheaton Ave., Wheaton, IL 60187

Please include: 1. your name, 2. age, 3. mailing address, 4. email address or phone number, and 5. if you are currently a student, what year and school you were attending that you first learned about the Kellogg-Briand Pact.

Peace Essays will be judged by the West Suburban Faith-based Peace Coalition (www.FaithPeace.org). Judging criteria will be based on:

1. knowledge of the Kellogg-Briand Pact, 2. insight into how the Pact influences U.S. foreign policy, 3. creativity in recommendations regarding compliance, and 4. quality of the Peace Essay prose.

For more details on the Peace Essay Contest: How Can We Obey the Law Against War? visit: <http://tinyurl.com/lawagainstwarcontest>

Age-appropriate prizes will be awarded for the top 25 Peace Essays received by Nov. 1. Also, if the award winner identifies the school where she/he learned about the Pact, a book — “When the World Outlawed War” by David Swanson — will be donated to the school library. The WSFPC will also send the best Peace Essays to key members of the U.S. Congress. For more information please contact Frank Goetz at frankgoetz@comcast.net.

CALENDAR

OCTOBER 2ND

“8, The Play”

JustFundKY has partnered with the Kentucky Conservatory Theatre to produce “8, The Play” – a stirring account of the federal lawsuit to overturn Proposition 8, which eliminated couples’ rights to marry in California. This important case is scheduled to come before the Supreme Court as early as several weeks from now and of course, the issue of marriage equality is one of the ‘hot button’ topics of this year’s campaign.

Kentucky Theatre on Tues, Oct. 2, 6:30p.m. Tickets to the play and the discussion/forum afterwards are only $8/person. Contact The Kentucky Theatre at 859.231.7924 to reserve your tickets.

Immediately following, JustFundKY will host their annual fundraiser, “AFTER 8-The Cast Party” – tickets are $100. Proceeds will allow JustFundKy to continue to give grants to organizations across Kentucky in the area of lgbt advocacy and awareness. A ticket to the after party will also include a premium seat at the play.

If you have ANY questions, call Marsha Charles at 859.983.9399.
www.justfundky.org/After8.

Photo by Rachel Elms Griffiths

Nikky Finney and Reel World String Band: A Benefit Concert for the New Opportunity School for Women

Sat, Oct. 6, 7:30pm Nikky Finney and Reel World String Band: A Benefit Concert for the New Opportunity School for Women, Recital Hall, Singletary Center for the Arts, University of Kentucky. Nikky Finney and the Reel World String Band collaborate to benefit the New Opportunity School for Women. Arson destroyed the offices of the School in Berea on December, 11, 2011: this concert is to help restore this vital organization’s future and to celebrate its 25th Anniversary. Tickets: Tickets $19. Students $10. Tickets at the Singletary Center Ticket Office 859.257.4929.

www.uky.edu/SCFA/tickets.php. Contact info: Ron Pen, Director, UK Niles Center for American Music 859.257.8183, ron.pen@uky.edu or Karen Jones and Bev Futrell, Reel World String Band 859.576.6178, reelworldstrings@aol.com

BLUEGRASS COMMUNITY AND TECHNICAL COLLEGE STUDENTS FOR PEACE AND EARTH JUSTICE

Fall 2012 Speaker Series

Mon, Oct. 8, 6:30-7:45pm

*Judy Logback,
Kallari Fair Trade Chocolate*

Kallari is a cooperative of the indigenous Kichwa people who live in the Napo River Valley of Ecuador.

Tue, Oct. 23, 6:30-7:45pm

*Itzel Polo Mendieta,
Witness for Peace*

Itzel lives and works in Mexico City, Mexico. Her topic: “The Other Dreamers: The Struggle for Education and Work in Mexico for Deported & Returned Youth”

Tues, Nov. 13, 6:30-7:45pm

Fraternel D. Amuri Misako, Democratic Republic of Congo

Dr. Amuri’s topic: “Globalization and Wars in the DR Congo: Stakes and Challenges about Social Justice.”

Mon, Nov. 26, 6:30-7:45pm

Death Penalty exoneree, ACLU

Guest will speak about his experience on death row

All events take place: Oswald Building Auditorium (OB 230), Cooper Campus 470 Cooper Dr., Lexington
For more info: Rebecca Glasscock at rebecca.glasscock@kctcs.edu

OCTOBER 3RD

KCADP Fundraiser

Louisville at 6:30pm, Kentucky Coalition to Abolish the Death Penalty (KCADP) Fundraiser. Suggested minimum donation: $25. Contact Kaye at 502.636.1330 or email staff@kcadp.org.

OCTOBER 6TH

VOICES 2012: Examining Segregated Library Services

1 to 4 pm. Lexington Public Central Library, 140 E. Main St. in Conference Room B on the 4th floor.

(see page 1 for details)

Kentucky Freethought Convention

8 am - 7:30 pm. University of Kentucky Student Center Ballroom. For full details: www.kyfreethoughtconvention.com.

Pray the Gay Away: The Extraordinary Lives of Bible Belt Gays

Sat, Oct. 6 from 4:00-7:00 pm. Author Bernadette Barton, Professor of Sociology and Women's Studies at Morehead University, at Winchester Galleria, 101 S. Main St., Winchester (859.745.0045). Come out for wine tasting, beer, non-alcoholic drinks and appetizers. Free and open to the public. At 5 pm, Barton will give a brief talk and sign books. www.bernadettebarton.com.

OCTOBER 7TH, 21ST, & 28TH

Queer Film Series

In partnership with the GLSO, sQecial will present three films to be shown at the downtown branch of the Lexington Public Library in the Farish Theater on Sundays at 2pm. Admission is free.

OCTOBER 10TH & 13TH

VOICES 2012: A View From the Bus —Tours of Historic Lexington

10 am to 1 pm; and Sat. Oct. 13, from 1-4 pm. Please call Howard Myers at

Project Cure Drive-by Day

Oct 13 from 10 am to 3 pm — Project C.U.R.E. Drive By Day: Bring medical supplies and equipment to the parking lot of Hunter Presbyterian Church, 109 Rosemont Garden. Since 1987 Project C.U.R.E. has delivered medical supplies and services to help meet the endless need in more than 105 developing countries around the globe. From band-aids and wheelchairs to surgical equipment and microscopes, Project C.U.R.E. needs medical supplies and equipment to help those in need. Contact: suzikifer@insightbb.com or call 859.277.0816. More info: www.projectcure.org.

859.312.1932 or send an email with "Bus Tour Reservation" in the subject line to peaceandjusticeky@gmail.com. Donations are gratefully accepted based on participants' ability to pay, $1-$25. (see page 1 for details)

OCTOBER 13TH

Project Cure Drive-by Day

(see box above for details)

OCTOBER 17TH

2012 Civil Rights Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony

(see page 7 for details)

OCTOBER 18TH

Homeless Resource Fair and VA Stand Down

Thurs. Oct. 18 from 9 am-2 pm — VA Stand Down Homeless Connect — offering resources and information for veterans and the homeless. Central Christian Church, 205 East Short Street Lexington. This yearly event, pioneered in Lexington by CKCPJ board members in 2008, brings together service providers from the region in one spot, serving hundreds of Lexington's homeless—many of whom are veterans. CKCPJ serves coffee beginning at 8 am. To help with this outreach effort contact Billie at mallory.billie@yahoo.com or 859.285.5211. Note: for updates and reports on the work of Lexington's Mayor's Commission on the Homeless, see <http://bit.ly/LexGovHomeless>.

OCTOBER 20TH

VOICES 2012: A Family Project: Heroes and Heroines of Civil Rights

(see page 1 for details)

OCTOBER 27TH

Unity Through Compassion

The Christian Muslim Dialogue continues its monthly discussion and potluck luncheon on Saturday, October 27, 10 AM-Noon at Hunter Presbyterian Church, 107 Rosemont Garden, Lexington, 40503. Share a Thanksgiving feast at the Masjid Bilal (Mosque) on Russell Cave Road on Saturday, November 17 following the 10am program. Halal turkey and trimmings will be provided. Guests will bring a dish to share. For more information: holmes@uky.edu

OCTOBER 28TH

Homelessness Series

Oct. 28 at Central Christian Church (205 E. Short St., Lexington), Kick-off event for "22 days of Awareness and Connection with our brothers and sisters who have no place to call home." Winners of "The Face of Homelessness of Lexington Video Contest" to be announced. Full schedule of awareness events will take place between October 28 and November 18, including "Bus Tours of the Bluegrass Homeless," days of connection, and showing of the original play "Please Don't Call Me Homeless, I Don't Call You

continued on next page

Homed” on TV. Coordinated by Catholic Action Center, Central KY Housing and Homeless Initiative, The Community Inn, and the Street Voice Council with the help of many community partners. Visit www.thefaceofhomelessness.info and join the Facebook page “The Face of Homelessness of Lexington” for updates, video contest rules and more information. Questions: caclexky@insightbb.com or 859.514.7210.

NOVEMBER EVENTS

Paper Deadline

Due Nov. 1: Submit papers to “Envisioning Peace, Performing Justice: Art, Activism, and Cultural Politics in the History of Peacemaking.” Conference to take place October 25-27, 2013, at Southern Illinois University Carbondale.

Strong conference papers will be considered for publication in the journal: Peace and Change. The Peace History Society was founded in 1964 to encourage, and coordinate national and international scholarly work to explore and articulate the conditions and causes of peace and war, and to communicate the findings of scholarly work to the public. <http://bit.ly/PHSNov1>.

Bluegrass Bioneers

Save the date: November 2-4, at the University of Louisville—a meeting of the Bluegrass Bioneers, beaming sessions from the national 2012 Bioneers conference, billed as “The Leading Sustainable Solutions Conference.” Sessions will also include presentations and workshops from local leaders. Bioneers is a nonprofit educational organization that highlights breakthrough solutions for restoring people and planet. The practical solutions that come from the Bioneers Conference address many of our most pressing environmental problems. <http://www.bluegrassbioneers.org>.

Peaceways is changing!

I’m sure you’ve noticed that this transitional issue is a bit different. We’re excited to be able to take this time to make the newsletter as effective as possible so that you know all of the important events that are taking place in Central Kentucky. Please bear with us as we make changes in our format and design — by all means let us know if there are changes you’d like to see in upcoming editions!

SPOTLIGHT: INTERFAITH ALLIANCE OF THE BLUEGRASS

photo by Peaceways Staff

Over 65 gathered at Woodland Christian Church this past September, to celebrate the International Day of Peace with the Interfaith Alliance of the Bluegrass. The International Day of Peace, established by the United Nations, is meant to be a day of ceasefire—personal or political. The Interfaith Alliance of the Bluegrass invites representatives of various faiths and religious institutions to present a brief prayer for peace from their tradition. Representatives from the Jewish, Church of Christ, Catholic, Quaker, Muslim, and Baha’i traditions spoke at the gathering.

INTERFAITH ALLIANCE OF THE BLUEGRASS

The Interfaith Alliance of the Bluegrass is an organization of adults and youth which fosters relationships among a diversity of religious traditions and organizations, in order to discover and celebrate shared values in an atmosphere of mutual respect.

We advocate for actions which promote the greater dignity and well-being of all people in our community through respectful dialogue and by modeling successful interfaith cooperation.

A Letter on Civility: <http://tinyurl.com/interfaithalliance>

CELEBRATE OUR SUCCESS

*You are warmly invited to the Kentucky Commission on Human Rights
2012 Civil Rights Hall of Fame induction ceremony*

A highlight of the Central Kentucky Council for Peace and Justice 2012 Voices series —
Wednesday, October 17th, at the Lyric Theater (300 E. Third St., Lexington) from 2:00 to 4:00 pm

FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

This event is hosted by CKCPJ and Ms. Yvonne Giles, director of the Isaac Scott Hathaway Museum Gallery. Civil Rights Hall of Fame inductees from across the commonwealth will be on hand to accept honors.

Invited speakers include

Lexington Mayor Jim Gray; David A. Brennen, Dean of the University of Kentucky Law School; Lexington Human Rights Commission Director Ray Sexton; Kentucky Commission on Human Rights Executive Director John Johnson.

Celebrations include musical performances by area students and more!

Questions: peaceandjusticeky@gmail.com

photo by Peaceways Staff

CKCPJ volunteers Celebrate Peace

THANKS to our all-star volunteers, at this year's Family Fun and Learning Night celebrating peace, the Council was able to staff two tables. Board member Tanya Torp returned with her popular face painting station. At right, Arlo Rosdatter expertly taught the folding of origami paper peace cranes. Arlo is the son of our 2012 Peacemaker of the Year recipient Beth Rosdatter. He says he learned to fold cranes early, and estimates he's produced several thousand in his 15 years. If you need an expert peace crane folder, Arlo's a good person to know. THANKS for providing us with your expertise, Arlo!

VOLUNTEER

Social Justice in the Autumn Air!

Your time is valuable! Make a difference. Spend your volunteer time spreading the word about Lexington's history, and our civil rights activists, while meeting new people and sharing your vision for a more just, fair, peaceable community.

- Hang posters (in store windows, community bulletin boards, or on wooden poles)
- Hand out flyers to people who come to our VOICES 2012 events. The flyers let people know about upcoming events and ways to be informed and take action. We aim to build a community of people who are informed and equipped to address the disparities in social justice, economic development, health and education.
- Join the Voices 2012 Promotion Team! Whether you are a seasoned marketing expert or have no promotions skills at all, we have a place for you.

Events flyer at <http://bit.ly/CKCPJVoices12>

— we welcome individuals and groups!

Contact: email peaceandjusticeky@gmail.com or call 859.488.1448.

The Central Kentucky Council for Peace and Justice
110 N. Upper Street
Lexington, KY 40507

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

*"If you don't like the way the world is, you change it.
You have an obligation to change it.
You just do it one step at a time."*
- Marian Wright Edelman

Non Profit Org. Us Postage PAID Lexington, KY Permit No. 850
--

Issue #262 • October 2012

Moving? Please send us your new address in advance.

HOW CAN WE OFFER SO MANY OF THESE EVENTS FOR FREE ?

...and why is there an envelope addressed to CKCPJ included in this newsletter?

We could not schedule an event series such as VOICES 2012: When is Separate Not Equal? without many partners. Beginning with CKCPJ's 25th Anniversary in 2008, our Fall Voices event series has evolved into our primary focus each autumn. Our programming this year is made possible by the generous support of the University of Kentucky's office of Community Engagement, the Lexington Fayette Urban County Government, Sayre School, Landrum and Shouse LLP, and the financial contributions of many individuals.

In order to continue bringing quality events to Central Kentucky, we need the continued support of many more people. We ask you as a Peaceways reader two questions:

- 1) Is our Voices effort meaningful to you? If so, please consider showing your support by making a contribution of $35 to $100 in the enclosed return envelope (suggested donation amounts for students and low income readers range from $5 to $25. All contributions are most appreciated regardless of the amount). We are in the process of contacting all Peaceways subscribers who have not recently contributed to the Council by phone: you can save us that call by using the enclosed envelope!
- 2) We are also interested in hearing your suggestions for themes to be considered for the 2013 Voices series: please include a note in the return envelope or send us a note at peaceandjusticeky@gmail.com.

All donations are gratefully received and spent with the collective wisdom of our deeply committed Board.

Thank You!