

Charter for Compassion

Join the conversation.

There is an urgent need for a new focus on compassion.

The Charter for Compassion is Karen Armstrong's effort to promote the principles of the Golden Rule across the religious and global spectrum. Bringing together voices from all cultures and religions, the Charter for Compassion seeks to remind the world we already share the core principles of compassion.

We invite you to take part in the unveiling

Charter for Compassion

November 15, Sunday, 2:00 pm

Lexington Public Library
Conference Room A
140 East Main Street
Lexington KY

Compassion manifests itself in the world not by thinking but by doing.
